On behalf of the City of Mason City, we invite you to Experience the Art of Hospitality in Mason City, Iowa. While in the community, we invite you to take some time from your busy schedule to experience the wide array of activities in the area. In Mason City you will find award-winning attractions, an assortment of facilities catering to visitors and lots of choices for evening entertainment. Mason City is known for our appreciation of music since it is the hometown of Meredith Willson, composer of the "Music Man". Mason City is also home to Prairie School Architecture with several buildings designed by Frank Lloyd Wright. Plus, the area offers over 500 hotel accommodations, over 100 restaurants that cater to every pocketbook, several retail stores for shopping, shopping and more shopping. To receive your FREE visitors guide contact Visit Mason City at (800) 423-5724 or visit Mason City on the web at www.VisitMasonCityIowa.com. We are proud to be the host community of your event and are looking forward to your arrival.
